A warm welcome to the European Rowing Junior Championships

Welcome to one of the great sport events this year in the land of sports - North Rhine-Westphalia! At the European Rowing Junior Championships, the best emerging athletes from around 40 nations compete for the title of the European champion. Athletic excellence and exciting competitions are therefore guaranteed.

Essen is an outstanding place for this. The Baldeneysee provides with its eight-lane-system optimal prerequisites for this international regatta, and the Ruhr-metropolis with its hospitality and its huge enthusiasm for sports will present itself once again as an excellent host.

I am in particular pleased that in such a European championship many young people not only compete in a fair competition and show their athletic abilities, but that they furthermore have the possibility to meet each other and to form friendships. In a year with multiple decisions concerning the future of Europe such a sport event is a beautiful example of the value, the diversity and the strength of the European idea and ideals. The Ruder-Regattaverein e.V. from Essen has shown extraordinary commitment with organizing this European championship. I am sincerely thankful for that. Special Thanks go to the numerous volunteers that make such an event possible in the first place.

I wish everyone exciting competitions and entertainment at the highest stage.

METTLER TOLEDO

Welcome to the 2019 European Rowing Junior Championships.

Essen's Lake Baldeney on the western side of Germany is an ideal venue for this year's championship event. The beautiful location is a regular venue for German national racing and the regatta course itself is known for its fairness across all eight lanes.

The venue is also great for spectators with a grandstand near to the finish line and as we expect more than 500 athletes to compete, we know there will be many supporters at the event.

The European Rowing Junior Championships is now a mature event as it moves into it's eleventh year. It is on the calendar when European rowing nations plan their season and regularly over 30 nations attend.

Rowers that compete at these championships invariably go on to represent their country at the World Rowing Junior Championships and this event certainly acts as great experience for these young athletes.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to all of the athletes racing here. I know for some of you it will be your first time racing internationally and I wish you the best of luck in your races. I would also like to say thank you to the organising committee who have made this championship event possible. I know that it can't be done without the huge volunteer support and I thank you for all of the hours that you have put in to get this event happening.

I am looking forward to two days of great racing and I know I will be seeing some of these athletes' names in years to come.

Dear athletes,
Dear friends of the rowing community,
Dear guests,

I am very excited for the European Rowing Junior Championships to take place in Essen this year. About 600 athletes from 35 nations have made their way to the Baldeneysee in Essen to compete for championship titles.

Under the motto “Welcome to the heart of Europe” the European Championships are the second international competition for our young athletes after the International Junior Regatta in the beginning of May in Munich. Our athletes are highly motivated to present themselves in front of the home crowd and display their best performances. We have put in a lot of work over the past months to compete at the highest level of European rowing. I hope that plenty of spectators will make their way to the regatta course to support our rising stars.

Considering that the Rhein-Ruhr region has applied to become a future Olympic venue the European Junior Championships are a great way to show how excited and supportive the region is about rowing.

The organizer, the Essener Ruder-Regattaverein (ERRV) is showing once again that they are capable of putting up such a big event in no time due to their organizational excellence. Athletes and coaches are always pleased to come back to the region. Therefore, I would like to thank the entire team for their impeccable preparatory work of the event - as they have done many times in the past.

Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend this year’s event, but I am keeping my fingers crossed. I hope you enjoy your time and wish everyone the best of luck.

Dear rowers,
dear coaches,
dear guests,

Welcome to the European Rowing Junior Championships 2019 in Essen!

The motto of this event is „Welcome to the heart of Europe“, which is not only about the geographical location of our region in the center of our continent, but should also reflect our hospitality and the love for our sport—rowing.

In recent weeks and months, numerous volunteers have worked hard to offer you a hopefully unforgettable experience. I would like to thank everyone involved for their tireless efforts. Furthermore, I would like to express my deeply felt gratitude towards the City of Essen, the government of our state North Rhine-Westphalia and the many sponsors. Without their help, such an event would simply not be possible. They all deserve my special gratitude!

I would also like to thank FISA and European Rowing for the great honor to let us host such a special event on Lake Baldeney. We are aware that you have high expectations regarding our regatta course and so do we. For all our guests and participants the regatta staff and I will do everything possible to ensure that conditions are ideal.

I wish all participants, coaches, and guests exciting and successful days in Essen.

Welcome to the heart of Europe!

Sportland NRW

Nordrhein-Westfalen ist das Sportland Nummer 1 – und das nicht ohne Grund. Sport gehört zum vielfältigen Leben der Menschen in unserem Bundesland dazu: Er zieht sich durch alle Lebensbereiche, alle Kulturen, ist integrativ und inklusiv. Nirgendwo sonst ist es so selbstverständlich, sich gemeinsam zu betätigen. Gepaart mit der hohen Dichte an Vereinen und Sportmöglichkeiten, den vielen erstklassigen sportlichen Leistungen, die hier erbracht werden, dem immensen ehrenamtlichen Engagement und der anstiftenden Begeisterungsfähigkeit der Bevölkerung für Sportgroßveranstaltungen, entsteht etwas ganz Besonderes: Die in der kollektiven Identität fest verankerte Faszination der Menschen für den Sport, hier in Nordrhein-Westfalen, wo sich Menschen aus allen Teilen der Welt zu Hause fühlen und Gastfreundschaft gelebte Solidarität ist. Diese gemeinsame Faszination macht das Land einig, stark und ständig bereit für den sportlichen Wettbewerb.

In diesem einmaligen Zusammentreffen von Gegebenheiten haben die Landesregierung und der Landessportbund ein enges Netzwerk für den Sport geknüpft, um dem erkennbaren gesellschaftlichen Mehrwert weiteren Raum für Entwicklung zu bieten. Dazu zählt, das bürgerschaftliche Engagement zu stärken und Sportangebote ebenso zu fördern wie Infrastruktur und Sportstätten, explizit für den Breiten- und Spitzensport. Denn über fünf Millionen Mitglieder des Landessportbunds mit ihren unterschiedlichen Bedarfen und 38.000 Sportanlagen, von kleineren Sportplätzen über Frei- und Hallenbäder bis hin zu berühmten Stadien, dem Hockeypark in Mönchengladbach oder die Bob- und Rodelbahn in Winterberg, decken jede erdenkliche Nische ab.

Die gebotene Vielfalt wird auch an anderer Stelle sichtbar. Nordrhein-Westfalen ist regelmäßig Austragungsort herausragender Sportgroßveranstaltungen, wie etwa Welt- und Europameisterschaften. Damit sich auf den Plätzen Nordrhein-Westfalens auch weiterhin eine weltklassige Elite entwickeln kann, sorgen die vier starken Partner, bestehend aus dem Landessportbund, der Sportstiftung, den Olympiastützpunkten sowie der Landesregierung dafür, dass die Weichen für eine zielgerichtete Förderung von Eliten und Nachwuchs früh und richtig gestellt werden. Damit etwa der Traum einer Teilnahme an den Olympischen oder Paralympischen Spielen wahr werden kann, muss alles passen, angefangen von der Auswahl und Förderung potentieller Talente, über die Vereinbarkeit von Leistungssport mit Schule, Studium und Beruf und die Einbindung von Wissenschaft in den Trainingsprozess für optimale Ergebnisse.

Im Sportland NRW steht aber nicht nur der Leistungssport im Fokus, sondern der Sport in seiner gesamten Vielfalt: Der Breitensport für alle, der Vereins- und Schulsport sowie der inklusive Sport für Menschen mit Behinderungen und integrative Förderung von benachteiligten Gruppen. Starke Vereine und zielgerichtete Maßnahmen sind viel mehr als ein bloßes Sportangebot. Sie schulen die Auseinandersetzung nach Regeln und sensibilisieren für Fairplay. Damit leistet der Sport in all seinen Facetten einen erheblichen Beitrag für das soziale Miteinander dieser Gesellschaft. Egal, wer, wann, wie, wo, alleine oder mit anderen, trainiert, zuschaut, bejubelt, Niederlagen verarbeitet oder sich einsetzt – all das belegt eindrucksvoll die Bedeutung des Sports und welchen Stellenwert er in Nordrhein-Westfalen, völlig zu Recht, genießt.
